Disciplinary Rules

1. Junior members are expected to maintain a high standard of discipline whether on or off the pitch, and includes training, playing, or spectating.
2. The categories will include:
 - Violent / Aggressive conduct
 - Verbal abuse / Dissent
 - Bringing the club into disrepute
3. Junior members must also abide by our Code of Conduct, which is available in our membership book, and on our website.
4. When a junior member receives a red card or in the view of the captain, coach or umpire, brings the game into disrepute with their conduct, the junior will be automatically suspended for 16 days pending a meeting with the Junior Disciplinary Committee. The player and / or parent will be informed immediately by the captain or coach, and the player will be unavailable for selection until the matter is resolved
5. The Captain / Coach will inform the Junior Chairman within 24 hours of the incident and the action taken.
6. The disciplinary committee will consist of all the Junior committee members, and a minimum of three attendees will be present
7. The junior must be accompanied by a parent or guardian – the meeting will not be undertaken unless there is a representative in attendance, and the suspension will remain in place until the matter is resolved
8. The Disciplinary Committee will either:
 - Take no further action
 - Issue a warning to the player regarding future conduct
 - Suspend the player
 - Recommend banning the player from the Club

Persistent offenders will receive penalties of increasing severity

9. If the junior member does not turn up, and does not give a good reason by the following Monday night, he / she will not be selected until the matter is resolved to the satisfaction of the disciplinary committee.
10. When a junior member drops out on the morning of a match, he will not be selected for the following week unless there is a reasonable explanation.
11. A suspended member while serving his suspension shall not play competitively for another club, school, County, Midlands, Region or representative body until the suspension is served.
